Pull together your inspirations of Autumn. Fall is in the air! What shall we paint?

Supplies:

- One full sheet 100% cotton rag Arches watercolor paper, 22 x 30. We will tear into smaller pieces for exercises. 11 x 14 sketch pad and tracing paper
- Winsor Newton Watercolors – New Gamboge, Winsor Yellow, Winsor red, permanent rose, Antwerp blue, French ultramarine blue, and burnt sienna. This is a split-primary palette as outlined in Nita Leland's book, Exploring Color.
- Assorted synthetic watercolor brushes, your favorites or 1" flat wash, 2" wash brush, 1/2" angle-shader, 1/2" dagger-striper, 3/8" dagger-striper, 1/4" dagger striper.
- Watercolor board or something similar like a freezer paper covered cardboard (16 x 20) with shiny side out, sealed with masking tape.
- Paper towels, notebook, pencil, apron, hair drier
- kneaded eraser, masking tape, scissors
- Graphite paper (small piece) to transfer pattern to paper
- 3-ring binder with plastic page protectors to store hand-outs and samples
- 2- 1/2 gallon plastic pails for water
- Small water mister, plastic tablecloth
- John Pike watercolor palette or other, palette should have a large mixing area.
