Autumn – doll

Remnants, fabric on paper Heart & Soul small quilt

This 2-day workshop will show you how to paint on fabric using simple acrylic paints from Golden, fluid acrylics. Go to http://missourifiberartists.org/artist_mofa/shirley-eley-nachtrieb/ for more ideas! Any subject matter will be entertained.

Supplies:

- Assorted fabrics to include some sheers, blacks, whites, and tone-on-tone, plain muslin for doll faces, greys for cat faces, etc. If the fabric is the dominant color of the subject that you are painting, the process moves more quickly. Cutting shears for fabric.
- Paint Golden fluid acrylics, Quinacridone Nickle azo gold, Primary magenta, Thalo Turquoise, black and white acrylic or gesso. Micro pens.
- Brushes – Assorted synthetics
- Embroidery threads, scissors, thimble, straight pens, masking tape, small buttons
- ½ gal water bucket or large yogurt containers
- Paper towels, hair drier, reference materials (faces, dolls, animals, etc.)
- Drawing paper (computer paper is fine), fine Sharpie pen. Scissors for cardboard
- Cardboard from cereal box or something similar, light weight to cut template out.
- Palette paper or freezer paper covered cardboard, we will mix our paints on this, about 9 x 12 size.
- Watercolor pencils if you have them (I will bring mine to loan out) or fabric pens for embellishing design.
